

Fairbridge Technologies is a leading distributor of temperature and humidity monitoring products targeting OEM and End User solutions.

We provide supply-chain visibility solutions for the monitoring, tracking and analysis of products in transit, offering our customers realistic and measurable data to fine-tune processes and gain better control over product distribution and storage.

Our team is geared to supply you with class-leading solutions – we strive to be our customer’s number one choice when they require products and services to satisfy their asset management and environmental monitoring needs.

Market sectors

- Pharmaceutical

- Transportation / Export and Import of goods
- Warehousing and retail chain stores
- Flora
- Medical and research
- Fresh Produce and consumables

Fairbridge Technologies has invested considerable effort into the standardisation and international legislation compliance of all its products and services. Thus you, as a customer, can be assured that our products will in turn help you to meet and surpass your HACCP, cGMP and ISO requirements.

Not only do our products meet our customers' requirements, but also those of our Planet – We strive to minimise environmental impact to a negligible minimum.

With 10 years' experience in environmental monitoring solutions, Fairbridge Technologies truly is your partner in supply chain monitoring.

Follow us on

Twitter

Like us on

Facebook

Fairbridge on

Click here to contact us now.